

"stonecoalenglish"

soon we have Old and New then we are eating oilballs a few lighting the firework will be nice but I say to you: you are not wise if you keep it all in your hand before you know it's in the brand and from your hand there is only half left you have to smear it with brandsalf if you have't so I say to you:keep your eyes open That it will go the right way may we all hopen
