

"hebt Gij mij verlaten?"

please God, don't hear my crying that I would leave this world so much pain that only dying seems a solution for me

God, I prayed so much for relieve but You didn't take it away

I must have spoken the wrong language, I believe but however, let me stay every movement I can cry it out

Lord, don't You see my suffering don't You hear my desperate shout do You even know I'm here
